Brethren,

After I wonderful joint Lodge of Instruction meeting in Malden, we return to Wakefield. LoI presents a great opportunity to visit with brothers from the district. Officers, please remember it is your obligation to attend LoI. Brethren who sponsored a candidate, you should be accompanying them to LoI. Committee Members, please join us for up to date info and district planning. In the future, ladies will be invited to every meeting and will have their own program from 7-8pm. I would encourage you to bring your lady and afford her the same opportunity for friendship that we have as brothers.

It is with great honor and pleasure that I represent the Most Worshipful Grand Master Roger William Pageau to the 13th District. The District Officers and Representatives I have appointed are your resources and are noted in this newsletter. I am sure they will serve you well! We have a vibrant district with active lodges. Your participation in the Lodge of Instruction, local lodge events, and the community, while always remembering your obligations to each other, will surely guarantee "Freemasonry for a better tomorrow!"

Faternally,

Richard

From the East of the LoI:

Welcome to the 13th Lodge of Instruction! I am please to be able to welcome you tonight.

Tonight's Lodge of Instruction meeting will be on the subject "Conducting a Masonic Memorial Service." Our speaker is Wor. John Douglass, a Funeral Director in Reading, Mass. It should very interesting and informative to our newest brethren and to some of our more advanced members.

This is also the first time we get to meet and welcome the new District Deputy for the 13th District, Rt. Wor. Richard Maggio. R.W. Maggio will be overseeing the meetings as part of his journey as District Deputy. I welcome him and will enjoy working with him for the next two years.

Fraternally,

Gordie

From the District Masonic Awareness Officer:

Brethren, one of our largest public facing opportunities is just around the corner. The Spring Open House this year to be held on March 27th has traditionally become an opportunity to open our doors to the public and invite good interested men into our lodges to ask questions and potentially ask to become a member. Many of us have had successful programs and have seen the benefits of this opportunity. Now is the time to start planning for this day, and it is up to all of you to make the day successful for your lodge and Freemasonry. We can all become involved not only with our Lodge's planning efforts, but also by reaching out to those good men in your life who may be interested in joining and inviting them personally to visit your Lodge on the 27th. Just making that personal invitation can make all the difference.

I look forward to hearing about your successful efforts if I can be of assistance please don't hesitate to ask.

Fraternally,

Scott
